I have not been posting recently because my wife and I have been engaged with relocating and moving into a new house. Our new home is now in Maryland. Among other things, we have been doing a church search- there are many of them in this area. Our experience is pushing me to revisit a Topic I had not wanted to return to: Church Music.

Here is a very interesting Blog on the subject of singing Hymns and using Hymnals. The blogger challenges us to think seriously about the subject- not just emotive with knee-jerk reactions. There is a lot of intelligent content here, including the follow-up Blog and comments from readers as well as good resources for further discussion.
