"Dave Travis, managing director of Leadership Network, offers his state of the church in America, based on recent research and his own observations looking through the "keyhole" of large churches."

Mr Travis then lists 5 things that are changing about churches, 3 things that will soon change and 3 that should change.

I went through these 11 trends and realized how disconnected I am with today's church scene. They do not describe my grandfather's Buick nor the churches that my grandchildren's grandfather knew. I miss the "Buick".
